Squamish is a recreational Mecca - and a terrific place to raise a family. With mountain biking, hiking, boating windsurfing, rock climbing, skiing and golf literally at your doorstep - the outdoor enthusiast will never be bored! Squamish has small community appeal, good schools, quiet streets and friendly neighbourhoods with low crime, coupled with the convenience of a 40 minute drive to downtown Vancouver, and 40 minutes to world renowned Whistler Resort... why look anywhere else?

I enjoy matching homes to people's lifestyles and needs, and I'm good at it! Over 50% of my success has been relocating and orienting people to the wonders of this coastal mountain town of Squamish. I work hard and smart to help buyers and sellers make the right decisions for them. I am a full time Squamish real estate professional by choice, with an excellent knowledge of my chosen marketplace, and a strong track record of success in the purchase and sale of Squamish real estate.
